It remains a part of my nostalgic, summertime viewing. I have always been fascinated by the media's depiction of the undead as the pale homicidal breath on our shoulder when it is much more than that. In my opinion, the undead are something that the living should fear and it is possible to seriously fear them. Fear the Walking Dead is based on an AMC original series that is also produced by AMC and tells the same story but in a more grimy and noirish style of storytelling. It is produced by Tony De Martos and Walking Dead mastermind Robert Kirkman. Also attached to the series are showrunners Andrew Chambliss and Ian Goldberg. Fear the Walking Dead: Zombie Noah is a featured web series produced by New Republic where we get to see the zombies
