The color scheme is spot on, and the details are superb. Very well done! ~P.S. I thought I would quickly explain how you get those pixel-like patterns, but I actually forgot. Everything is based on triangles, and that's it. All these "pixel" textures you see are just based off of flattened triangles. I love the sweet, innocent shine on her cheeks, the gentle curve of her horns, and the gentle curves of her curves (a phrase I made up). This scene is one of my absolute favorite in the show. I hope you like it!2:56am, 30 May 2018 The Australian Rugby Union and the NSW Waratahs have released a statement regarding Israel Folau's comments made on the weekend in regard to Rugby Australia's code of conduct policy.

ADVERTISEMENT In a statement the unions said:

“The first level of any gender-based discrimination or harassment is that they are perceived to be gender-based. This was clearly perceived by Israel.”

“...Israel was fully aware that he was being filmed and then was told by RUPA before he spoke that he was being filmed. Israel's comments were not made as a private individual. In view of this, no one, including Israel was offended by the comments." "...Israel was speaking as an individual and as a professional rugby player. Israel's comments were not made with any intent to offend, and there was no personal ill-will from Israel towards the people and/or organisations he referred to." "...Israel had read the code and knew that his comments did not constitute discrimination of any kind, and he
